ABOUT CORE INCLUSIVE CONSULTING

Christopher Thompson is a master facilitator, motivational speaker, and leadership/executive coach with 30 years of experience across multiple industries. As the founder of CORE Inclusive Consulting, Christopher specializes in executive and leadership coaching, public speaking, and strategic consultation, focusing on driving leadership excellence, fostering innovation, and advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) within organizations.

With a proven track record at JPMorgan Chase and beyond, Christopher has led initiatives to enhance talent development, organizational culture, and DEI strategies at scale. His expertise in recruitment, coaching, and operations, combined with a passion for building inclusive workplace environments, has consistently delivered measurable growth and transformation. As a faculty member at the Pacific Coast Banking School, he teaches second-year graduate students on the importance of culture, community, and connection in banking.

Christopher is an accomplished speaker and facilitator, sought after for his ability to manage teams, foster collaboration, and inspire others to excel. Certified by multiple professional organizations, including the International Coaching Federation (ICF), he is dedicated to helping leaders bring out the best in themselves and their organizations. His mission is to create pathways for career development, cultural transformation, and inclusive leadership, driving sustained success in today's evolving business landscape.
